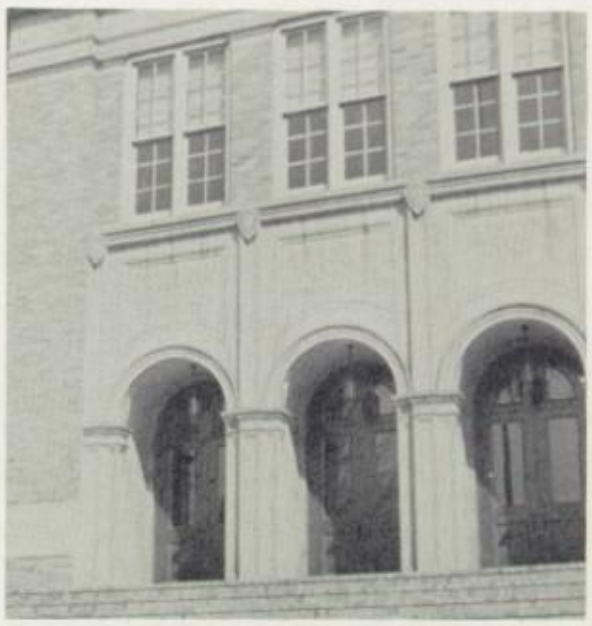
COMET

BELLEVUE HIGH SCHOOL
Bellevue, Ohio

EDITION NUMBER XXXIV



Dedication

The 1954-55 Comet is dedicated to Mr. DeWayne Burke, a man who exemplifies to us these things:

A great interest in community activities,

A wide knowledge of world affairs,

A deep pride in his profession,

A sincere and friendly personality,

A true understanding of youth.

Senior Song

Our high school days are over,
Closing hours are nigh;
Soon we will be leaving
Dear old Bellevue High.

May the things we've learned in Bellevue
Guide us through any strife,
For the Autumn time of high school
Is but the Spring of Life.

Cherish we our memories
Of the things we've done.
May we be as happy
When the goals we seek are won.

Onward we are marching
For honor we will try.
The class of '55 bids
Farewell to Bellevue High.

Junior-Senior Prom

Club Celestial and the Junior Class played hosts to the Seniors on April 29 for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The guests danced to the music of Jack Clarke's Band.

Several Broadway acts were featured during intermission. "On the Waterfront" was interpreted by "Eva Marie" Morgan and "Marlon" Meyers. Recording stars Mary Lou Stratso and Jim Taylor presented two top hit songs. Dorothy Lapata and Ed Lepley, "Two from Greenwich Village," did a song and dance act. "Bellevueway columnist" Vicki Stoll presided as mistress of ceremonies.

According to the Club Celestial program, the queens of the evening were crowned against a background of skyscrapers, champagne glasses, and balloons. Queens Nan Yundt, Senior, and Alice Briehl, Junior, ruled over the remainder of the dance.

Refreshments were served by a committee of selected sophomores. They also took tickets at the door and operated a check room.

Committee chairmen were: M. L. Stratso, band; M. Meyers, refreshments; J. Zehner, entertainment; S. Stark, invitations and programs; and D. Lapata, decorations.

Junior Play

"One Foot in Heaven," a three-act play by Hartzell Spence, is the story of the everyday happenings of a minister and his family in a new parsonage. The authentic, old-fashioned costumes added much to the show. This year's Junior Class Play, presented on November 18 and 19, was directed by Mr. Hakes. S. Bellard and C. Schueler acted as student directors.

Senior Play

Chills plus thrills were the two major elements of this year's Senior Class play "Sky High." The program was presented May 12 and 13. Action took place at a skiing lodge, Sky High, where a group of college students were marooned because of a cave-in. All went well until they discovered that the lodge was being used as secret headquarters for a group of spies.

This play was directed by Miss Buffington. Student directors were B. Limber and L. Andrews.

Christmas Formal

"Frosty The Snowman" put in his appearance at BHS during the Christmas season. "He" provided the theme for the annual Christmas Formal. The F. H. A. sponsored this year's dance on December 11. The gym and tables were decorated with evergreens, snowmen, and snowballs.

From a snow covered bandstand, Robert Montgomery and his orchestra played. David Beckman was master of ceremonies for the intermission entertainment. Rosemary Groff and David Burke were named as King and Queen of Good Will for the evening.

Committee chairmen included: P. Recupero, D. Panyard, M. Adams, R. Cudnik, M. Palmer, P. Strecker, and B. Ruess.

"Home for Christmas," a two-act play, was presented by the speech classes as the annual holiday dramatic production. The cast enacted the story of a family reunited for what might be their last Christmas together. Their one aim was to recapture the Christmas spirit of their childhood.

Miss Esther Schachtele directed the play which is adapted from a story by Lloyd C. Douglas. Linda Burley did student directing. The orchestra and mixed choir set the mood for the assembly by providing traditional Christmas music.

Vocal and Orchestra Notes

The Bellevue Mixed Choir, conducted by Mr. John E. Everson, has sung itself out for another year by closing more programs than any other vocal group.

Opening the music year was the Armed Forces Day Service in which the choir sang a group of patriotic songs. Next, the choir had the happy task of closing the Christmas assembly and thus opening Christmas vacation!

Came spring and two important concert dates: the B. H. S. Spring Choral-Orchestra Concert and the N. O. L. Choral Festival held in Upper Sandusky on April 1.

When B. H. S. held open house on April 26, the Choir presented a twenty-minute program. The Choir's last performance was at Baccalaureate with the senior members of the Choir appearing in their graduation gowns.

Extra curricular activities included a trip to Ohio Wesleyan University for the High School Music Festival on February 5, and the Mixed Choir party on May 14.

Choir officers for the year were: L. Meyer, President; N. Moore, Vice-President; E. Foos, Secretary-Treasurer.

The orchestra presented short programs before the Junior Play and the Christmas assembly. The B. H. S. formal spring concert included the orchestra. Bellevue played host to the invitational Northern Ohio League Orchestra Festival.

Other appearances of orchestra members included: the Senior Play, National Honor Society Assembly, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

Concert and Marching Band

The Bellevue High School bands, under the able direction of Mr. Duane Corbett, had a very successful season this year.

At the football and basketball games the band always had unique songs and steps that brought rousing cheers from the audience and kept the morale of the players zooming. The Indian Maids also performed at the football games in their red slacks and white sweaters. Majorettes Carol Schueler, Suzanne Weekley, Jeanette Wing, Margo Billiard, and Karen Edwards donned new capes for their appearances with the band.

Drum major Dickie Heyman, the Majorettes, and the Pep Band offered spectacular entertainment during half-time at basketball games.

The annual Symphonic Band Concert, held March 25, featured George Woodard as student director directing famous Strauss melodies. Curtis Crews played a sousaphone solo entitled "Pomposo." Other songs helping to make the program successful were "The Signet March," composed by Duane Corbett, "Gun Smoke," and famous Glenn Miller songs. The members of the Marching Band also belong to the Symphonic Band. The major and majorettes play instruments in the Symphonic Band. After the concert there was a dance at which the B. H. S. Dance Band provided music.

The Bellevue High School band participated in the N. O. L. Band Festival at Tiffin. The band played "Silver Springs Overture," "Americans We," and "Trumpet Boogie."

During December, fifteen students went to Chicago to the eighth annual Midwest National Band Clinic. They stayed at the luxurious Hotel Sherman. The students heard some of the best music at the nation's largest band clinic.

Homecoming Queen

Joan Helber

Joan Helber reigned as Homecoming Queen of Bellevue High School on October 8, 1954. Her attendants were seniors Edith Foos and Pat Kelley, junior Kay Maike, sophomore Linda Haynes, and freshman Sandra Norman. A band fanfare heralded the arrival of the girls at Harmon Field. Escorts, Fred Liles for the Queen, Ian Irons and David Burke for the seniors, Jim Koechley, junior, Dennis Mesnard, sophomore, and Roger Van Fleet, freshman, met the girls as they stepped from shining convertibles. Gary Haynes crowned the queen, and Carl Sberna gave her the coronation bouquet. Billy Houle was crown bearer and Cathy Allen carried the bouquet. The Queen and her court also ruled over the post-game dance at the auditorium.
